For several years past my stater-in-law. Mrs. Lons Lannon, who lives in Anthony, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, has suffered greatly with inflammatory rhematics; and nervous troubles, which finally ran into 8t. Vitus Dance. She was regularly attended and prescribed for by the best physicians who decided after a long course of treatment, that her case was incursible. The doctors advised a change of air and residence, stating that temporary relief might be dence, stating that temporary relief might be obtained by such change, but that medicine could not do her say good. At the time, her feet and limbs were so swollen, withgrheomatism that she cantel scarcely walk. Her nervous condition was very bad, and St. Vitus Pance caused her to twitch and shake constantly. Ague had also set in, and one night soon after Mrs. Lannon's arrival she was suffering so much that I determined to go a drug store and try and get some medicine to relieve her if possible. The Crescent Drug Store was the nearest store, and I went there. I talked the matter over with the druggist, and I talked the master over with the druggist, and he persuaded me to buy a bottle of Crescent Repersuated in to only a factor of Crescing.
